

The Corona Virus is a Hoax The Vaccine Will Be the Kill Shot

Global Coronavirus Daily Deaths on Its Worst Day Is Still Less Than: Flu, Swine Flu, Malaria, AIDS, Pneumonia, Hepatitis, Tuberculosis Combined!

These are the facts reported by Jim Hoft, of the Gateway Pundit, on March 17, 2020. As of Tuesday morning, March 17th, 2020, the data shows:

-  There have been 4,748 confirmed cases of coronavirus in the US
-  There have been 93 deaths due to coronavirus in the US

From our report on Monday —

The current estimates for the fatality rates for the coronavirus just don't add up. The estimates based on current data are completely inaccurate. Current data shows that this virus is much less deadly than even the common flu from the 2019-2020 season.

And as The Gateway Pundit reported earlier today the controversial Ethiopian politician and Director General of the World Health Organization (WHO), Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, claimed in a press conference in early March that the fatality rate for the coronavirus was many multiples that of the fatality rate of the common flu. This egregiously false premise has led to the greatest panic in world history.

WHO Director General Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus announced on March 3rd: About 3.4% of reported COVID-19 cases have died. By comparison, seasonal flu generally kills far fewer than 1% of those infected.

This inaccurate statement by the WHO director started the global panic.

The Daily Death Toll of Coronavirus—

The global number of deaths of coronavirus continues to escalate.

There were globally 686 coronavirus deaths recorded on Sunday.

There were globally 641 coronavirus deaths recorded on Monday.

The total deaths globally are 7,510 deaths.

So how do these numbers compare to other deadly diseases?

Here is a graph of the Average Disease Deaths per Day worldwide.

	Seasonal Flu - US	Coronavirus - US	Coronavirus -Global
Number of Deaths	22,000	69	6,668
No. of Confirmed Cases (thru testing)	222,552	3,806	173,316
No. of People Tested	1,073,976	N/A	N/A
No. of Estimated Cases	36,000,000	N/A	N/A
Death Rate per Confirmed Cases	10%	2%	4%
Death Rate per Estimated Cases	0.1%	N/A	N/A

You can see from the chart above that SO FAR the worst number of daily coronavirus deaths (686) is still lower than: Flu, Swine Flu, Malaria, AIDS, Pneumonia, Hepatitis, and Tuberculosis.

The controversial Ethiopian politician and Director General of the World Health Organization (WHO), Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, claimed in a press conference in early March that the fatality rate for the coronavirus was many multiples that of the fatality rate of the common flu.

This egregiously false premise has led to the greatest panic in world history. The real virus is fear!

The Director General of the WHO spoke on March 3, 2020 and shared this related to the coronavirus:

While many people globally have built up immunity to seasonal flu strains, COVID-19 is a new virus to which no one has immunity. That means more people are susceptible to infection, and some will suffer severe disease.

Globally, about 3.4% of reported COVID-19 cases have died. By comparison, seasonal flu generally kills far fewer than 1% of those infected. This statement led to the greatest panic in world history as the media all over the world shared and repeated that the coronavirus was many, many times more deadly than the common flu.

The problem is his statement is false. It was not accurate!

The Gateway Pundit reported yesterday, that the coronavirus fatality rate reported by the media was completely inaccurate and the actual rate is less than the current seasonal flu – the media was lying again. The false reporting of the coronavirus fatality rate of 3.4% in the media started with the statements made by the WHO in early March.

Here's a summary of the analysis from yesterday proving the Director General's statement was very misleading and materially false:

1. The fatality rate of the coronavirus was based on current data available of known positive cases and known deaths.

Oftentimes estimates have to be made because data is just not yet available. The Director General of the World Health Organization (WHO), Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, used the fatality rate of coronavirus with known numbers and used this as his prediction of eventual mortality rate. This was a faulty assumption. Estimates usually involve obtaining information that is available and making estimates on what is not. We cannot tell the future but we can make educated guesses based on information available. This is what has been done with the coronavirus because this type of virus has apparently never been seen before.

2. Sometimes estimates are reasonable and sometimes they are wrong, and even way off.

The point is that whenever estimates are made of large unknown values they are always wrong because no one can tell the future. Sometimes estimates end up close and sometimes they are not and sometimes they are way off.

3. The current "estimate" for the coronavirus fatality rate according to the WHO is about 3.4%.

The estimate used most often is from the WHO based on the Director General's comments. The WHO estimates the mortality rate of the coronavirus to be around 3.4%:

The World Health Organization (WHO) has estimated the mortality rate from Covid-19 is about 3.4%. That is higher than seasonal flu and is cause for concern – but even if it is correct, more than 96% of people who become infected with the coronavirus will recover.

4. The same rate for this year's seasonal flu is 10% if you use known cases and known deaths (but the media tells you it's .1%).

As The Gateway Pundit reported earlier, according to CDC numbers, in the US in the 2019-2020 flu season there were 222,552 confirmed cases of the flu from testing and an estimated 36 million flu cases in the United States. There were 22,000 estimated deaths from the flu (via the CDC).

5. Actual results for the coronavirus are lower than the flu.

Based on the above numbers, the actual fatality rate for those who were confirmed to have had the coronavirus is 3.4%. The actual mortality rates for those who were confirmed to have had the flu are around 10%.

The actual data shows that the mortality rate for those who had the flu (10%) is almost twice as high as for those with the coronavirus (3.8%).

6. Current estimates between the flu and the coronavirus are not comparing 'apples to apples'.

The fatality rate that is commonly referred to in the media for the coronavirus is 3.4% from the WHO. This number is based on confirmed cases of people with the coronavirus.

The flu fatality rate provided by the CDC of .1% includes an estimate of individuals who had the flu (36,000,000). This rate includes an estimate of all people with the flu, most who were not tested for the flu.

The fatality rate for the coronavirus does not include those who had the coronavirus but were not confirmed. This is why the flu fatality rate is .1% and the coronavirus fatality rate is 3.4%!

The two rates are like comparing apples to oranges. By doing so the coronavirus fatality rate is way overstated when compared to the flu and the WHO and the media has created a worldwide crisis and panic by reporting these rates simultaneously!

The coronavirus is not more fatal than the flu based on current data available. It is much less fatal than the flu based on current data.

7. Those most at risk from the coronavirus are the elderly and sick (similar to the flu).

Similar to the flu, those most at risk of dying from the coronavirus are the elderly and the sick. The average age for those who died from the coronavirus in Italy is 81 years old. This is consistent around the world. There have been no known fatalities for any children 10 and under.

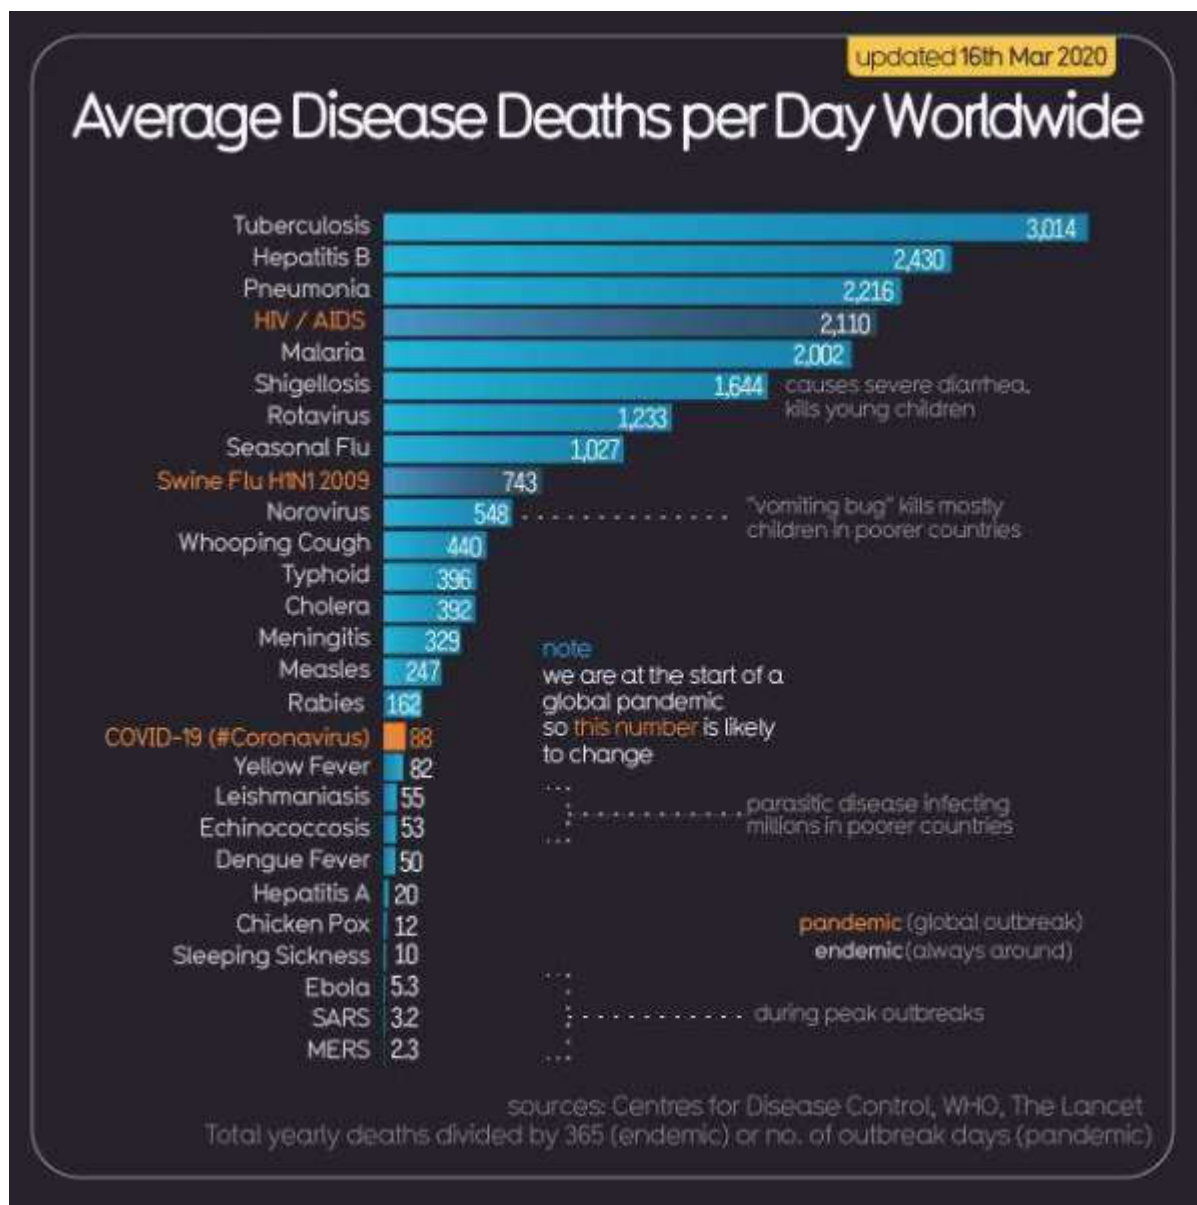

In summary, President Trump was right when he said the WHO's coronavirus fatality rate was much too high.

Evidence proves the coronavirus is not as deadly as what was reported by the WHO and is continually repeated in the media.

In fact, current data shows it is not as deadly as the flu. The elderly and the sick should be concerned and protected. Everyone else has little to worry about.

Again, don't believe what the media is telling you. They are lying again.

Via Information is Beautiful.

All of this media fear is driven by profits by the CDC, WHO, and big Pharma. It has nothing to do with public health; it is more about depopulation and genocide by the world elite!

I have been saying from the outset that the Corona virus was a hoax, plain and simple. I am not saying that the virus is not real, but simply saying its purpose is based upon fear, ignorance, media hype, a hidden agenda that is related to depopulation hidden in a technology that does physical harm to the all life form, even death itself, and dishonest people who have an agenda that would exclude you and I from the living.

CNBC reported March 17th, this morning that Global cases surpassed 183,000 with 7,167 deaths, according to data from Johns Hopkins University. Nearly 80,000 infected patients are listed as recovered. Regeneron has moved forward its time frame for having doses of a potential coronavirus vaccine and treatment ready for human testing. It now expects it by early summer. It is where we want to pick up with at this point. A fact that the dishonest media always omits in its reports, is that two vaccines have been available for at least two years, and there are others saying they will have a vaccine in a few weeks. Again, truth is abandoned when you are in a war.

The war we are in at this time is a war for the mind, and that will get you to believe the vaccine will give you immunity and comfort of the mind. The truth is that the vaccine will be the "Kill Shot."

Coronavirus has the world on edge. The outbreak is now a global pandemic. Coast to coast, large public gatherings and major events have been canceled. Employees have been told to work from home, universities have moved all classes online and elementary schools have closed for sanitizing. The stock market has seen meteoric crashes. It's a global event pervading nearly every aspect of people's lives. Psychologists and public health experts say public anxiety is high, and it's largely fueled by a feeling of powerlessness. The spread of the new coronavirus is not just a public health crisis. Part of what drives feelings of anxiety is a lack of information. The virus is new, and there remain many questions. Most people haven't had it, nor do they know someone who has. Experts say that matters. Not everyone reacts to epidemics the same way. When news is mixed, people can choose to focus on the good or the bad. The good news is, for most people, the illness caused by the coronavirus is generally mild and the flu-like symptoms of fever and cough don't last long. The bad news is the virus is novel and highly contagious. Whether people fixate on the good or the bad has a lot to do with who they are. Reports say most people who contract the coronavirus experience symptoms similar to the flu. Then people read stories about the National Guard helping with quarantine containment. A blog post from the Poynter Institute, which trains journalists, noted that saying "deadly virus" can be misleading, because the virus is not deadly for most people. People should also limit their media exposure, experts say. They caution against reading about the outbreak obsessively and recommend getting needed information and moving on. This is what USA Today said on March 12, 2020. The underline statement above is both misleading and untrue!

Being retired I have the luxury of living on the Internet, and the so-called Corona Virus has been nearly at the top of my research work. I am pushing 84 so you can see why I would give the virus much of my attention. 80% of the so-called Corona virus has been those 78 and older. I have read virtually everything in print on the Internet and even deeper scientific studies and evidence.

As the Gateway Pundit exposed the WHO, in previous articles I have noted that the CDC is just as corrupt. We can go back and watch 1976 old segments of Mike Wallace of CBS 60-Minutes that confirmed the CDC corruption that existed years ago and continue. CDC Director Dr. Anthony Fauci received a $One-hundred million dollar grant from Eugenicist and former Microsoft founder William Gates. Dr. Fauci is a globalist shill that earns upwards of $10-billion in profits from the patents the CDC holds on so-called viruses.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) says up to 214 million Americans could get sick, while 1.7 million could die if the current status of the coronavirus pandemic continues to worsen.

The CDC made the announcement during a closed-door meeting held last month among CDC officials and dozens of health experts and epidemiologists from around the world, according to the New York Times, which first broke the story.

During the meeting, one of the CDC's leading epidemiologists presented four scenarios that showed the possible trajectories the virus could take, as well as the effects of its spread throughout the United States.

For the absolute worst-case scenario, the CDC said between 160 million and 214 million people would get sick with COVID-19, the deadly illness caused by the Wuhan coronavirus which, after originating in China, has since spread to other parts of the world.

According to the CDC, in their projection, even if interventions such as drive-thru testing and barring visitors from nursing homes were to be started immediately, as many as three million Americans might still fall ill.

This article appeared on Mike Adams, the “Health Ranger” web page on July 31, 2018. I’m including the complete post. The report had been read or visited by 30,000 people, which is miniscule for posts. I have been a reader of Mike Adams web page for over twelve years and have respected his honesty and truthfulness on many controversial issues. This article pretty well speaks to the danger of 5G technology.

“5G is already linked to rising health problems... concerns about “health calamity” on the rise” The Corona virus is the deception hiding the real issue, i.e., 5G.

(Natural News) Fifth generation technology for mobile networks, known as 5G, is set to make its big debut in Sacramento, CA this summer — but faster internet speeds aren’t all this new technology is known for. Concerns about the effects of the new cell service are mounting, especially with the growing body of research tying cell phone radiation to cancer and other adverse health outcomes. Outside the lab, firefighters and others exposed to 5G devices say that they are already experiencing negative cognitive effects, including confusion and memory issues.

Radiation from cell phones and cell towers has already been linked to brain cancer. With the advent of 5G, there will be more towers that are closer together — a recipe for disaster, according to health advocates. Multiple cell service providers have announced that they will be rolling out 5G for faster speeds, but the impact of the new network is poorly understood at best. More, concerns about what the long-term effects of the near-constant radiation bath provided by 5G networks are continuing to grow — and for good reason.

Understanding 5G and cell phone radiation

The kind of radiation emitted from cell phones, cell towers and related devices is known as “electromagnetic radiation,” often abbreviated to EMF or EMR. It is also considered to be a type of non-ionizing radiation. While it is not the same radiation you’d fear in a nuclear accident — that doesn’t mean it’s as “risk-free” as industry leaders make it out to be.

Currently, cell phones and other devices rely on the 4G network. 5G or “Fifth Generation” technology promises speeds of up to 100 times faster than the current model. In order to achieve such speed, however, there is a caveat: Thousands of more base stations need to be installed in order for it to work. 5G waves cannot travel as far as 4G; experts say that one new base will need to be installed for every 12 homes. This means that while you might not currently live near a cell tower, soon these new base stations will become virtually impossible to avoid.

Combine the prevalence of 5G base stations with the risks of EMR radiation and the potential hazard to human health is virtually impossible to ignore — unless you're a regulator or an industry leader, perhaps. It is a health hazard waiting to explode. The symptoms mimic those of the so-called COVID19 or Corona virus. Keep this thought in your memory vault as I will come back later and show how this is being used to hide or mask 5G radiation sickness so that thinking people cannot differentiate between the two: COVID19 or 5G.

There is no shortage of reasons to be worried about the impact of 5G networks on human health, but the recent reports of health complaints from a group of San Francisco firefighters ought to give everyone pause. While the promise of faster speeds and better connectivity sounds like a dream come true to cellphone lovers, it is becoming quite clear that the cost of 5G is simply too high.

Firefighters from San Francisco say that they began experiencing an array of unusual side effects — after 5G equipment were installed in and around their firehouses. Symptoms reportedly included memory problems and confusion. The firefighters say the symptoms only stopped after they relocated to different fire stations without 5G devices nearby.

It's not just the firefighters, either. In Gateshead, England, scientist Mark Steele says that there's been an uptick in reproductive issues and other health problems since the city's new wireless streetlights were installed. Miscarriages, still births, nosebleeds and insomnia are among the consequences he's reportedly observed in the community.

“We are seeing babies dying in the womb as these transmitters are situated outside people’s bedroom windows. It’s a humanitarian crisis,” Steele contended.

Many studies have shown that there is a link between EMR from cellphones and cancer. In fact, a recent, large-scale government study found an association between cell phone radiation and brain cancer and heart tumors.

The $25 million study carried out by the U.S. National Institutes of Health’s National Toxicology Program (NTP) has shed light on the very real dangers of cell phones and other wireless devices. The NTP study focused on exposing rats to two types of radiation emitted by cell phones for a nine-hour period each day. The radiation bath began while the rats were still in utero, and was continued until the rats died a natural death. An expert review panel analyzed the findings and was shocked to see that the radiation from cell phones was linked to increase in tumors of the brain and heart. Additionally, the reviewers also observed a “statistically significant” increase in damage to heart muscle.

Advocates say that the implementation of 5G is a recipe for total “health calamity.”

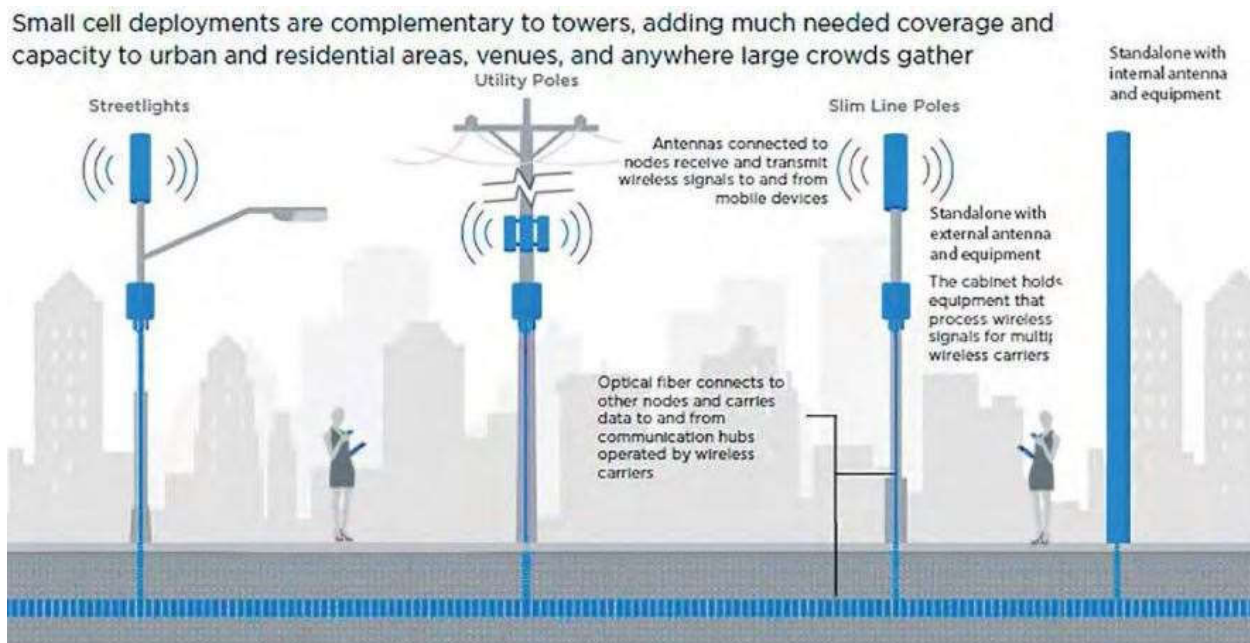

This is what we are in store for with 5G on every street of America. 44,000 small satellites in [LEO] Low Earth Orbit will circle the Earth. Each of those satellites will be beaming down their 60-gigahertz on every square foot of the planet.

Don’t ignore the risks.

Despite the growing body of research indicating danger, the potential health crisis of 5G is largely being ignored. For example, in response to the firefighters' health complaints, the wireless industry told CBS13 that "decades of research" show that cell phone radiation is safe. The industry rep even told CBS13 that brain tumor rates in the U.S. had gone down since the advent of cell phones. In some communities, the 5G towers were removed after elementary school students and teachers were diagnosed with brain cancer.

This assertion from the wireless industry is at odds with reports that brain cancer is on the rise in both the United States and England. But it's not just industry leaders ignoring the risks of 5G and other related tech — the FDA has come out and declared that only "heavy users" of cell phones may be at risk.

Downplaying the risks of cellphones, 5G and other hazardous technology is a major public health issue. In today's world, being a "heavy user" of cellphones isn't that hard to accomplish — most young people would easily fall into that category.

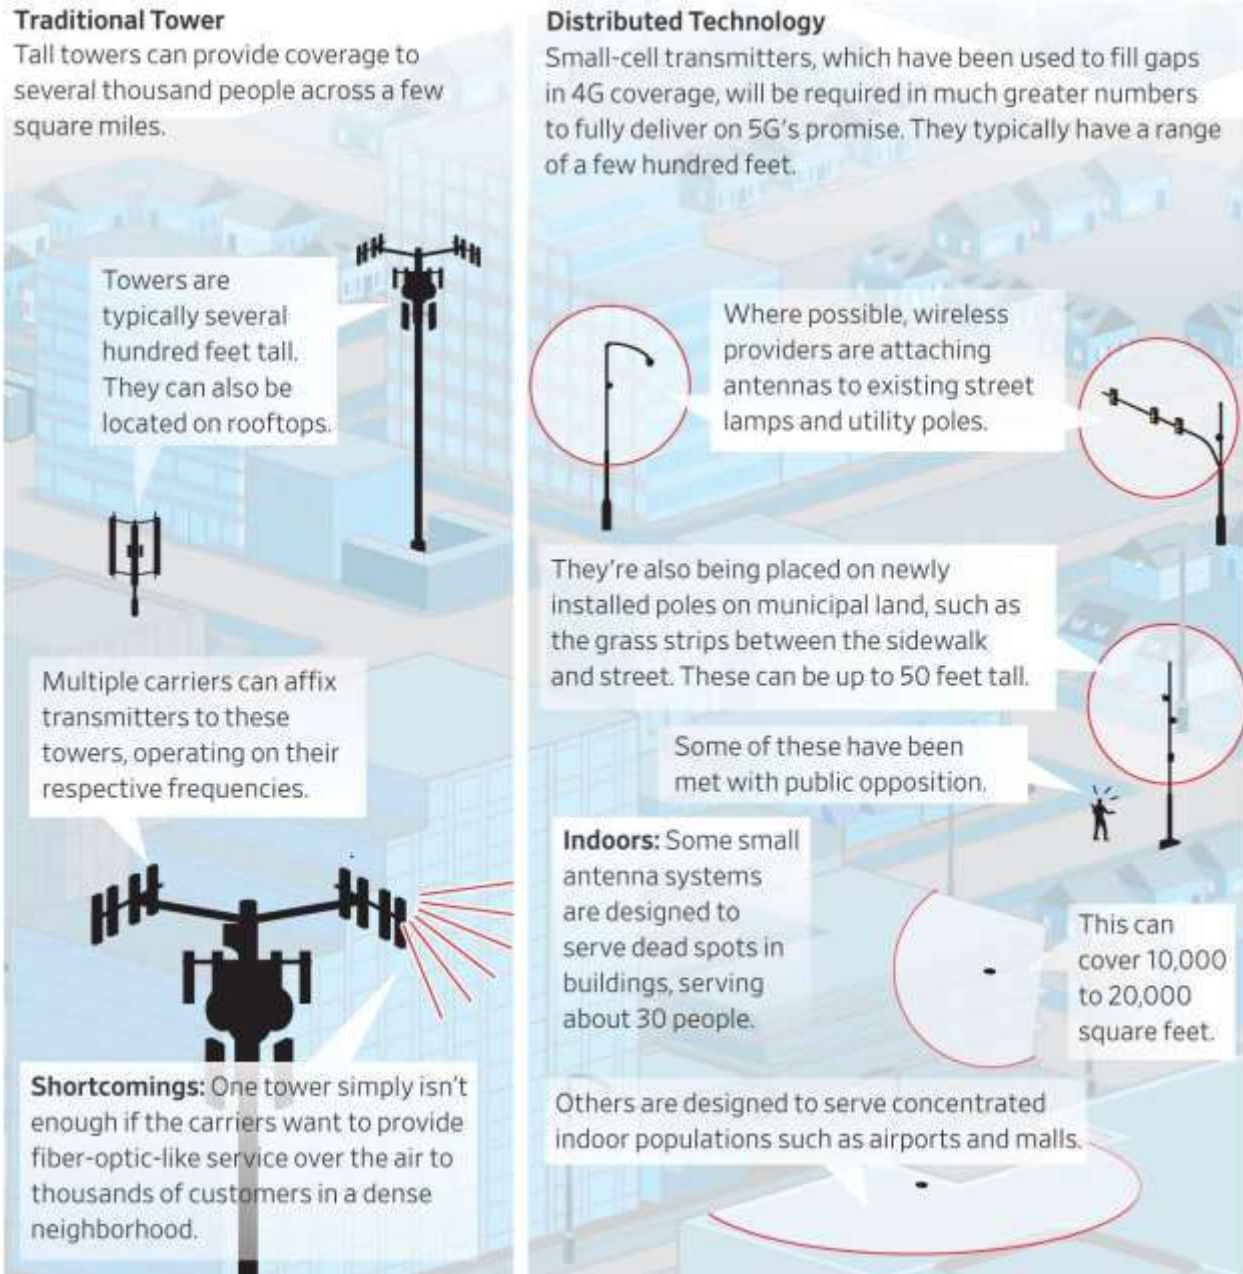

The illustration above and on the next page show how the network of micro towers will be mounted to provide total coverage of residential and business communities around the world. Wuhan, China and Milan, Italy were designated as model cities with all 5G coverage.

The reader is probably familiar with the kitchen microwave that has become as familiar in the kitchen as the toaster.

If you are like my home, we heat up water or milk for hot chocolate. We warm up leftovers like pizza, or soups, etc. We do not realize what a 1,000 watts for 1 minute really does. But think a minute or so about that cup of hot chocolate as you being microwaved all day and night 24/7/365, and no break from the energy beamed down from a low orbit satellite. Because beamed energy is invisible to human sight, does not mean that it is not there and heating up the water and oxygen molecules that are in your body. You are the object and the satellite is the equivalent of the microwave in your kitchen.

How does the microwave energy of 5G harm the human body? On page 14 is a list of symptoms of radiation EMF or microwave illnesses. Victims of radiation illness include former military personnel, such as radar operators, military pilots, state troopers and police officers that used the Radar Gun to catch speeders, cell-tower installers of 2G, 3G, 4G, and 5G technology. Testicular and Ovarian; and brain tumors are the leading cause of cancer deaths among those working with or in close proximity, such as Air Force, Navy, and Marine fighter pilots who actually physically sit on the aircraft radar avionics pack beneath their seat.

As you can see the list of symptoms of EMF radiation is really quite large, many of which you might not even associate with cell tower EMF energy waves. I am exactly 2,500 feet from a cell tower. Some months ago I began to experience itching of my hands and arms. I developed a rash on my upper arms and shoulders. It took several months of experimenting to determine that my itchy hands were due to the cell tower due north of my study and computer work area. I had been monitoring our small house with a EMF radiation meter, because my wife was complaining of headaches. Her recliner in the living room was close to the location of our electricity utility meter on the outside wall.

Our bodies resonate with the Earth's magnetism EMF of 7.83 hertz. It is commonly known as the Schumann Resonance. In simple terms, our body is in synch with God's natural frequency for life on Earth. Schumann resonances are global electromagnetic resonances, generated and excited by lightning discharges in the cavity formed by the Earth's surface and the ionosphere.

The advent of the discovery of electricity some 2,500 years ago but did not become of use until the 19th century with discoveries of the voltaic pile and motors. Faraday did work in the 19th century. The Chicago World's fair had electric lights in 1895.

5G weakens the human immune system. This fact is confirmed from all the evidence gathered by studies where 5G 60-gigahertz technology has been introduced into the environment. This includes insects, bees, birds, trees, fauna, and last but not the least, humans.

The above is a photo image taken from a meter called an Oscilloscope. The picture below on the right is a MDO3054 Tektronix Mixed Domain Oscilloscope. The one on the right will set you back $12,600 and so it is not something that you would have in your garage. The one on the left will set you back $130K, and the reason for its higher price is related to the fact that it provides readings up to 70-gigahertz.

The screen shot above is extremely important because what it tells us. At the 60-gigahertz range, which the 5G cellular network is designed to operate at its optimum level, consumes 98% of the oxygen molecules in a human body. This means that a person hit with an energy level of 60-gigahertz, will drop dead in their tracks in seconds. 5G simply means 5th generation of wireless communications. When the telecommunications company says 5G is safe, they are skewing their facts. At the lower energy range up to 40-gigahertz they are correct, but once that rheostat power controller is turned up, harm to life increases to the point where human life can be suffocated to death in seconds.

Those who died in Wuhan, China of the Corona virus were compromised by 5G 60-gigahertz, when their immune systems were damaged by the virus. What people have not been told is that the Corona virus symptoms mimic the symptoms of 5G 60-gigahertz. Without autopsy of a victim's lungs and heart, there is no way to determine cause of death with certainty. The confusion is a benefit to the telecommunications industry since they can claim plausible deniability as a defendant in any legal suits filed against the four major telecoms: AT&T, Horizon, Sprint, and Verizon. The sheer volume of the victim bodies becomes fixated on mass burial, cremation and not autopsies.

The fact is the Corona virus should be called the Queen's virus. The Crown virus is a product of the UK and its Zionist Rothschild owners/controllers. It was all about bringing down the U.S. economy, and to pit the two most powerful countries against each other: China against the U.S. The banks and the Federal Reserve are collapsing as this is being put on my computer.

I'm going to sum up here for those not interested in reading the entire length of this scam, worthy of being a Tom Clancy novel.

The U.S. was to be set up by Israel to take the blame. This was a Rothschild project known as "The Anglo-Saxon Mission." Read part 12 of "The Satanic Talmud and the Synagogue of Satan".

The Pirbright Institute through the use of "DEW" Directed Energy Weapons and satellites hijacked the 5G system of Wuhan, China. Pirbright Institute remotely via satellite turned up the 5G 60-gigahertz power, which was not operating at its optimum energy level. 5G weakened the immune system of the Chinese. Those who died in China were largely over the age of 75, with weakened immune systems. There were others who ran the U.S. end of the operation and were unaware they were being set up to be the fall guy to get the Chinese to start a war with the U.S. This is one of the Zionist's tricks to create a war between nations that they want to bring down; simply pit them against each other. It is an aspect of the "Sampson Option", a book written in 1991.

For the Zionist Rothschild's to rule the world they use a number of strategies designed to divide and conquer. In the Zionist Chabad Judaism plan, they need to destroy the two major powers which just so happens to be China and the United States. They have another plan for dealing with Russia.

Remember, the Rothschild's control the world media, news wire services, key world papers, even the weather services. As early as March 15th, they were planting disinformation pieces in the media to take the focus off of Israel as the perpetrator of this entire scam of the virus. Articles are now in the Independent, in the UK, a Rothschild-controlled paper, planting the story to make it look like the U.S. was the culprit planting the virus in Wuhan, China.

The CDC owns the patent on one strain of COVID-19 and the UK (Rothschild's) Pirbright Institute holds a second patent on the second strain. Israel permitted the weaker of the two strains to infect Israelis citizen so as to take the scrutiny off Israel who would have been immediately suspect if no Israeli got the virus. The weaker strain virtually is so mild, more of a placebo in this global game of chess/Monopoly. The less-milder version of the virus has an element of SARS inserted and two elements of HIV inserted into the virus. There has never been a vaccine for HIV AIDS. Virologists made the HIV virus trick the body into believing it is part of the body. Those who take the vaccine that will be rolled out relatively soon, will receive either the kill shot that kills them in a few days, or kills them later as they discover and learn they have the HIV virus.

The vaccine for the Corona virus was patented by the CDC and the Pirbright Institute of Surrey, England. Research has revealed that the head of the CDC, Dr. Anthony Fauci developed a process where "Human cell line that is exquisitely sensitive to transfection by cloned AIDS RV pro-viral DNA." The process is known as "Transfection" which is the process of deliberately introducing naked or purified nucleic acids into eukaryotic cells"

Dr. Anthony Fauci has been appearing frequently when the President and Vice President have been giving press reports and public updates relative to the spread of the Corona virus around the nation, and the steps being taken to contain the spread of the COVID19, as its clinical term. Dr. Fauci is a member of SES, Senior Executive Service, which are largely globalists, representing both political parties. He and his friends at the Pirbright Institute work toward the depopulation eugenics movement, not saving lives.

Amid Coronavirus: World's Elite Hiding in Bunkers Sensing End of Days' says Rabbi

As the number of infected tops 127,000 worldwide, people are prepping for the worst which, for most people, means stocking up on toilet paper and hand sanitizer. But for the uber-wealthy, preparation for the end-of-days takes on an entirely different meaning.

A recent report in The Guardian noted that wealthy travelers are opting out of commercial airlines, choosing to use exclusive private jets. Private travel precludes crowded terminals as well as the incubator conditions on airliners but the jet-set is taking their pandemic concerns one step further. The Guardian article claimed that people who can afford to do so are fleeing to remote locations. Two weeks ago Jeff Bezos, locals reported the Amazon founder had arrived at the Wellington, NZ airport in a corporate jet. Plane spotters caught this picture of the Amazon CEO's personal corporate jet. On February 20th, 2020. The tail number showed it was owned by ExecuJet.

“The world’s richest people are chartering private jets to set off for holiday homes or specially prepared disaster bunkers in countries that, so far, appear to have avoided the worst of the Covid-19 outbreak,” The Guardian wrote. “Many are understood to be taking personal doctors or nurses on their flights to treat them and their families in the event that they become infected.” The article also noted a “surge” in inquiries and sales of underground bunkers.

Another article in Business Insider cited a survey in Finder as stating that an estimated 20% of Americans participate in some sort of doomsday prepping. The article reported on the affluent version of buying up toilet paper and hand sanitizer. “The wealthiest of Silicon Valley have become super doomsday preppers by buying remote New Zealand properties, getting eye surgeries, and stockpiling ammo and food,” the article began.

One such location in the U.S. is “Survival Condo”, a former nuclear-hardened Atlas missile silo converted into luxury safe houses. Half-floor options start at $1.5 million and a 3,600 square foot penthouse runs $4.5 million. The complex has the following features:

Indoor Shooting Range, Exercise Facility, Rock Climbing Wall, Dog Park Hydroponic Food, Aquaculture, Military Grade Security, Indoor Pool, Classroom, Library, and Theater.

These pictures show the incredible variety of underground bunker homes for those wanting to bug out from the world, and have the money to afford the plush accommodations with no limits. This effort both in time and money would certainly be an unneeded expense if they believed in the Gospel message of Jesus Christ. He is about to call us home to the mansion in the sky. Scripture implies that it exceeds what man knows here on Earth.

These bunker homes are beautiful and well-equipped by many standards, they may have all the accoutrements money can buy but for the real thing of natural sun light. Even with taking vitamin C and D3 supplements, one lives in an artificial bubble. Do not envy the material rich but keep mindful of the mansion God has ready for you. Satan wins if you succumb to the greater virus of FEAR!

"We're in a Hall of Mirrors. It's distressing but it's for operational security." Those are the words of Dr. Jon Rappoport, who has been studying fake epidemics for 30 years.

The coronavirus is not what [They] say it is. I've been running videos which speak to the "hopium" part of what may be happening behind the scenes but this video is the most fact-based and important video that I have posted in a long time - about any topic.

Dr. Rappoport has been studying fake epidemics for 30 years and he knows every imaginable phase of these psyops. He knows how the numbers are fudged.

"How many people have actually died, according to official statistics in Italy from the so called coronavirus? Maybe five, maybe two. Maybe, because they're all old. They all had long-term health conditions and, as confessed by the head of an Italian Health Institute," which I posted at NoMoreFakeNews, these people all had such serious prior medical conditions that was obvious but that's why they died.

"Had nothing to do with the coronavirus. But because of these five cases of mortality, 60 million people are locked down in Italy. Fake, fake, fake, fake. Phony, phony, phony. It's a fake epidemic."

I have been following Jon Rappoport of NoMoreFakeNews for sixteen years and never once did any of his reports prove to be not true. Since 1998, I have been following the depopulation agenda. I knew this day was coming. It was at that time I was studying the Club of Rome and their agenda to find ways to cull the population. Since 1972, we have been poisoned slowly, so as not to be noticed in the methods being used to poison the water, the air, the food, that we consume. Few people believed me over the past two decades that I have been sharing my research. Most people saw me as a conspiracy theorist wacko and paid me no attention. I have dozens of books in my library dealing with what has hit home with the public in this eye of the storm that has upset lives and normalcy. I have tried to be a faithful "Watchman on the Wall" based upon Ezekiel 33:6.

Event 201

The Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security in partnership with the World Economic Forum and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation hosted Event 201, a high-level pandemic exercise on October 18, 2019, in New York, NY. The exercise illustrated areas where public/private partnerships will be necessary during the response to a severe pandemic in order to diminish large-scale economic and societal consequences. This pandemic exercise occurred simultaneously with the outbreak of the Corona virus in Wuhan, China. Coincidence? Not likely. In the next segment I will share more.

Their public Statement about CoV and our pandemic exercise:

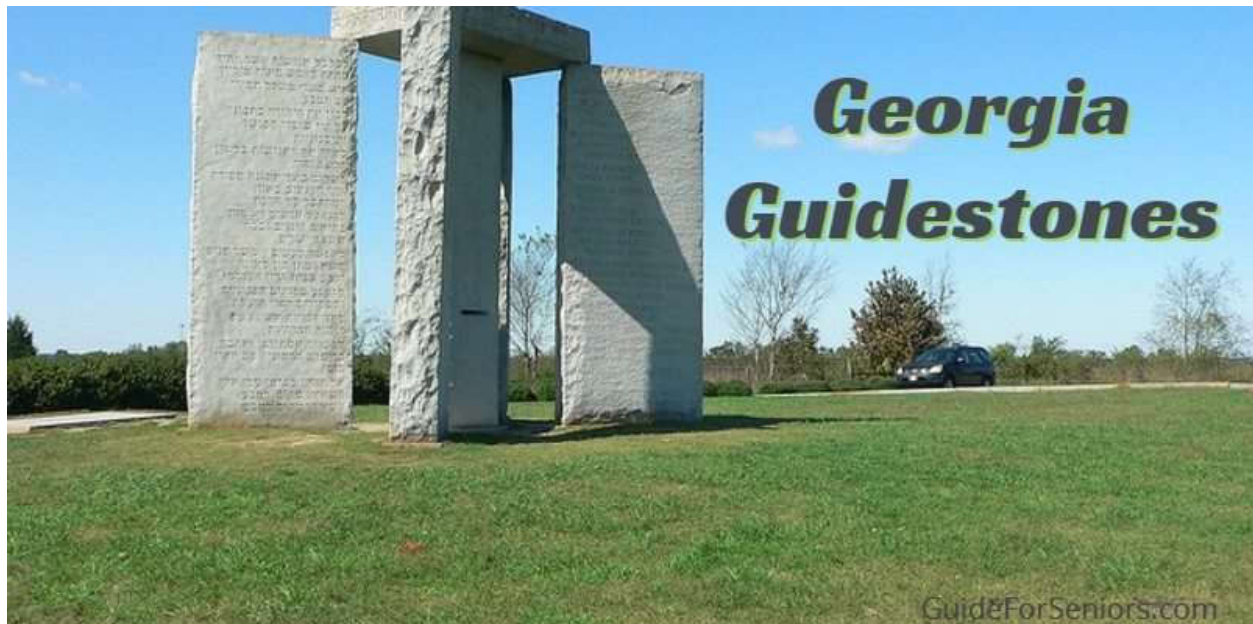

In recent years, the world has seen a growing number of epidemic events, amounting to approximately 200 events annually. These events are increasing, and they are disruptive to health, economies, and society. Managing these events already strains global capacity, even absent a pandemic threat. Experts agree that it is only a matter of time before one of these epidemics becomes global—a pandemic with potentially catastrophic consequences. A severe pandemic, which becomes "Event 201," would require reliable cooperation among several industries, national governments, and key international institutions.

The facts are that the CDC, WHO, NIH, and Johns Hopkins along with their deep pockets eugenicist Bill & Melinda Gate Foundation, is driven by the depopulation agenda, spelt out on the Georgia Guide Stones in Elberton, GA.

The Georgia Guidestones, AKA the "American Stonehenge," are a massive granite structure in far eastern Georgia near the South Carolina border. No one knows who paid for the construction of the Georgia Guidestones, or what exactly is meant by the strange messages engraved on them.

What has been the most important point about the Georgia Guidestones has been what is found in this secular version of the Ten Commandments. This section is seen in the smaller picture below just below the controversial monument. There is no question that those behind the Georgia Guidestones believe there are too many people in the world. Major names associated with Eugenics and Depopulation include the Rockefellers, the Rothschild's, Ted Turner, who by the way is the largest landowner in the U.S.; William "Bill" Gates of Microsoft fame; Planned Parenthood, of which Bill Gates father was a state director; and many of the scientists and virologists employed by the agencies named above.

Here are some of the most bizarre and interesting facts about the Georgia Guidestones.

1. The Georgia Guidestones are almost twice as tall as Stonehenge.
2. Nearly a quarter-million pounds of granite was used to make them.
3. The stones have 10 messages inscribed on them. They read:
 - MAINTAIN HUMANITY UNDER 500,000,000 IN PERPETUAL BALANCE WITH NATURE
 - GUIDE REPRODUCTION WISELY – IMPROVING FITNESS AND DIVERSITY
 - UNITE HUMANITY WITH A LIVING NEW LANGUAGE
 - RULE PASSION – FAITH – TRADITION – AND ALL THINGS WITH TEMPERED REASON
 - PROTECT PEOPLE AND NATIONS WITH FAIR LAWS AND JUST COURTS

- LET ALL NATIONS RULE INTERNALLY RESOLVING EXTERNAL DISPUTES IN A WORLD COURT
- AVOID PETTY LAWS AND USELESS OFFICIALS
- BALANCE PERSONAL RIGHTS WITH SOCIAL DUTIES
- PRIZE TRUTH – BEAUTY – LOVE- SEEKING HARMONY WITH THE INFINITE
- BE NOT A CANCER ON THE EARTH – LEAVE ROOM FOR NATURE – LEAVE ROOM FOR NATURE

4. These ten “messages” are written on the Guidestones in eight different languages. Those languages are English, Swahili, Russian, Spanish, Sanskrit, Hebrew, Arabic, and Chinese.

5. No one knows who paid for their construction. As the story goes, an elegant, well-spoken, well-dressed, and grey-haired man who identified himself only as “R. C. Christian” appeared at a granite company in nearby Elberton, GA one day requesting a quote on the project. Figuring he was some “nut,” the granite specialist purposely claimed a ridiculous price, figuring Mr. “Christian” would balk. Instead, Mr. Christian agreed to the price.

6. Some people suspect the Rosicrucian Order financed the project.

Since “Rose Cross Christian,” AKA “Christian Rosenkreuz,” was the founder of the mystical society the Rosicrucian Order, many suspect that the Rosicrucians were financed the building of the Georgia Guidestones.

7. Others suspect that Ted Turner financed the project. Since Ted Turner of CNN fame is located a mere 100 miles away in Atlanta, and since many of his stated globalist goals reflect the Message of the Georgia Guidestones, it has also been suggested that he is the mystery patron behind the giant granite slabs.

8. The project’s builders’ had to sign a legal agreement never to reveal the identity of the financiers. They also swore to destroy all legal papers regarding the Guidestones’ construction once the project was finished.

9. The “Message of the Georgia Guidestones” seems to call for at least 90% of the Earth’s population to be wiped out. The passage about maintaining humanity at a population of a half-billion or less would require a massive dying-off of humanity the likes of which we’ve never seen. This is what has led many conspiracy theorists to allege that whoever financed the Guidestones, they are in cahoots with an evil New World Order project to extensively depopulate the planet.

10. Yoko Ono called the Guidestones “a stirring call to rational freedom.”

Apparently The Beatles widow is fine with seeing 6.5 billion humans wiped out.

11. The stones were defaced with graffiti in 2008. The spray-painted message was DEATH TO THE NEW WORLD ORDER.

12. About that “New World Order” thing... Whoever paid an astronomical sum to build a giant set of tombstones calling for massive depopulation, a single world language, and a World Court definitely didn’t see a use for national borders.

13. The Guidestones were designed to withstand catastrophic events. Events such as, oh, a World War that wiped out 6.5 billion people. As the world lay in ashes, somewhere R.C. Christian and his cohorts could take a little comfort that at least their giant creepy tombstone was still standing way out in rural Georgia.

14. Some claim they are Satanic in origin. This includes right-wing pundit Mark Dice, who claims they are of “a deep Satanic origin” and that R. C. Christian was a member of “a Luciferian secret society” with ties to the “New World Order.” Others have referred to the ten messages inscribed on the Guidestones as “The Ten Commandments of the Antichrist.”

15. Others claim they were intended to be seen by the survivors of a nuclear war.

Since the Georgia Guidestones were built in 1979, at the height of the Cold War between the USA and the Soviet Union that many thought would inevitably result in a nuclear apocalypse, writers such as Brad Meltzer suggests that the Guidestones were meant to be seen by that war’s survivors, at which point the world’s population would already be below a half-billion.

16. A mysterious “Time Capsule” is allegedly buried nearby. A tablet erected near the Guidestones claims that a time capsule is buried beneath the tablet, although there is no proof the capsule really exists and no suggestion of what is written on it.

17. R. C. Christian presented builders with a shoebox containing a wooden model of the monument along with 10 pages of extremely detailed specifications. Many of the specifications involved using the Guidestones as an astronomical guide, as explained in the next few items.

18. The Guidestones were purposely designed to track the sun’s east-west migration year-round.

19. During an equinox or solstice, those who stand at the west side of a “mail slot” carved into the Guidestones can see the sunrise over the horizon.

20. The four outer stones are positioned to mark the limits of the 18.6 year lunar declination cycle.

21. An eye-level hole drilled into the center stone permits viewers to locate the North Star.

22. A small hole drilled through the capstone serves as a sundial.

At noon every day, a reading of where the sunbeam hits the center column allows one to pinpoint the exact day of the year.

23. R. C. Christian and his cohorts allowed the landowners full cattle grazing rights. In a small gesture of generosity, the mysterious backers of the Georgia Guidestones still permitted the owners of the land on which they were built to allow their cattle to graze on it for their entire natural lives—or until a nuclear war that wipes out 90% of the world's population, whichever comes first.

24. In his film "Endgame: Blueprint for Global Enslavement," Alex Jones claims the Guidestones represent a genocidal depopulation program sponsored by the world's financial elites.

25. The Georgia Guidestones have been called "America's Most Mysterious Monument."

26. In 2009, a man stole a 6-inch cube of granite from the top of one of the Guidestones. Four years later, police arrested William Jeremy Ellis in the middle of the night as he was trying to replace the cube of granite he'd stolen. He explained to police that he "didn't want that weight anymore."

27. A tablet in front of the monument declares "LET THESE BE GUIDESTONES TO AN AGE OF REASON." It's kind of hard to be reasonable when you're talking about wiping out 90% of the planet's inhabitants, though? TC mark.

Denmark rushes through EMERGENCY CORONAVIRUS LAW! FORCED VACCINES! From the article: "As well as enforcing quarantine measures, the law also allows the authorities to force people to be vaccinated, even though there is currently no vaccination for the virus.

It also empowers them to prohibit access to public institutions, supermarkets and shops, public and private nursing homes and hospitals, and also to impose restrictions on access to public transport."

Here we go, folks! Is this the start of "can't buy or sell" without this forced vaccine? This is a real concern by Christians who well know what the "Mark" of the Beast is all about in the Bible. It is of great importance since the public is at the disadvantage to know what is in the vaccines. The Corona virus the world faces today has two strains, one very mild, and a second that contains elements of SARS and two elements of HIV in the sequenced gene examined by scientists in India, who were later forced to recant under pressure by those who could end their careers.

Don't take any chip or "MARK" inside your bodies! It will change your DNA from Redeemable (by the Blood of Jesus Christ) human to Unredeemable hybrid! Please heed this warning!

The Corona virus was hyped in the media as a means to undermine President Trump's re-election campaign, but even more the world fanned the flames of its harm through fear-mongering, fear porn, and panic that took hold in the grocery stores and super stores like Costco, Sam's Club, Walmart, and Amazon.

The fatality rates worldwide have shown the Corona virus also known as COVID19 to be small by comparison with the flu every year that kills hundreds of thousands world-wide, through pneumonia, respiratory failure, and compromised immune systems in people who have other conditions such as emphysema, black lung, etc.. There is no question that more insidious motives are at play here with the craze to sequester people at home, and shut down daily business across the country.

Can the common flu cause people in America and worldwide to lose their minds, and lose all ability to think? Apparently, that is the case, as Americans have gone insane over a new monster created out of thin air called coronavirus. Without any initial testing, without any proof, without any certainty as to what this new fake threat to all mankind actually is, the world is now in lockdown, and therefore very easy to control. A better plan for the globalists could not have been imagined, as the sheep get into line for sheering without any resistance or question. I have watched this take place, and it was structured incrementally, all along testing the gullibility and fear of the populace, and as it progressed, it became obvious to those perpetrating this lie that taking over the entire country was going to be a cakewalk.

What is happening now is exactly as Bill Gates previewed it in his idiocy called Event 201, which seems to have been the initial test and propaganda piece set in place to start this engine. This was no coincidence, regardless of what the mainstream media and globalists' claim, but was an active exercise for what was to come. And yes, this is real conspiracy, not "conspiracy theory."

I will not relent in my efforts to expose the fact that the U.S. economy has been decimated due to spending, debt, and money creation for many years. Considering the situation in 2008, when all markets should have failed, the current economic picture is not only far worse, but has reached the pinnacle of disaster. This economy cannot be saved by money printing, QE, or sending checks out to those that have been forcibly relieved of their jobs by government fiat. I firmly believe that a major factor in why this so-called pandemic was created is to shift blame for the impending economic collapse on this virus, and hide the fact that the Fed and central banks around the world completely destroyed the economy. Had the markets and economy been allowed to fail without any fake pandemic, the government and banking system would have been exposed for the criminal thieves they are. This could not be allowed to happen by the ruling elites. Hence, the flu will kill us all!

Do not let the disease of fear take you down.

Blessings,
